

5152 Custodial and Non-Custodial Parents - Rights and Responsibilities

The rights of custodial and non-custodial parents are defined by Wyoming Statute and legal documents such as divorce decrees or other signed parental agreements. Unless otherwise modified by a legal agreement, non-custodial parents have the same right of access as the parent awarded custody to any school records, to attend school activities of the student, contact the student's teachers, and attend the student's teacher conferences.
