

5152-R Custodial and Non-Custodial Parents - Rights and Responsibilities

Custodial parent or parents: means are defined as the natural parents, adoptive parents or legal guardians. The school district may require written verification; such as a certified divorce decree, decree of adoption, or other legal document from the custodial parents establishing the legal relationship.

The custodial parent has the responsibility to:

1. Keep the school office informed as to the address, residence, and contact information of the custodial parent.
2. Provide a copy of any legal document which restricts any rights of the non-custodial parent to the student such as access to the student, the student's records, the student's school activities, or the student's teacher conferences.

The non-custodial parent or parents shall keep the school office informed as to their contact information.
