

The Impact Aid program offsets revenue lost by the inability to collect taxes on federal coal leases in Campbell County. We receive funds- about $100,000 per year- based on the number of students with a parent/ guardian employed on a mine site for the coal companies. These funds can go directly into the general fund and have no spending stipulations.